Brinker Capital to Sponsor Finance Week at Temple University's Fox School of Business

BERWYN, Pa. (March 21, 2019) – Brinker Capital, a leading investment management company focused on multi-asset class investing, today announced its sponsorship of Finance Week at Temple University's Fox School of Business. As part of its sponsorship, Brinker Capital will host four educational sessions open to Temple University undergraduate and graduate students during the week of March 25, 2019.

"We're committed to the development of the next generation of employees and leaders," said Noreen D. Beaman, Chief Executive Officer at Brinker Capital. "By partnering with Temple University, we're able to connect with younger talent to generate awareness surrounding careers within the financial services industry, and more specifically the Philadelphia region."

Brinker Capital and the Fox School of Business planned the following sessions to take place in Alter Hall during Finance Week:

- Monday, March 25 - Financial services industry panel featuring Jeff Raupp, CFA, Chief Investment Officer; Phil Green, Chief Financial Officer, and Sheila Stotler, AIF, Senior Vice President of Product Management at Brinker Capital
- Tuesday, March 26 - Behavioral finance investor webinar with Dr. Daniel Crosby, Chief Behavioral Officer at Brinker Capital
- Wednesday, March 27 - Market and economic outlook provided by Tim Holland, CFA, Global Investment Strategist at Brinker Capital
- Friday, March 29 – Keynote address by Charles Widger, Founder and Executive Chairman at Brinker Capital

"Brinker Capital is sharing a wealth of experience and real-world knowledge with students who have an interest in investment and financial planning," said Interim Dean Ronald Anderson of the Fox School of Business. "When undergraduate and graduate students are able to join in a discussion with industry leaders, they leave with an understanding of the conversation and concerns industry leaders face and insight into how industry leaders are solving real-world problems. It puts them a step ahead of their competitors in the job market and makes them valuable assets in the business world."

Brinker Capital's sponsorship is part of an ongoing initiative supporting local colleges and universities to inspire students to embrace careers in the financial services industry. In recent months, the company has spent time speaking with students at LaSalle University, Lehigh University, and Villanova University.
